Notice shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given if sent in writing to the address of such member as it appears on the books of the Chamber and delivered in person, sent by prepaid first class mail or sent by any electronic means of sending messages to any person who has consented to receive notice by the Chamber. Each notice so sent shall be deemed to have been received on the business day it was delivered or sent by electronic means or on the third (3rd) business day after it was mailed. A declaration by the Secretary or the Chair that any such notice has been given pursuant to this By-law in accordance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the giving of such notice in compliance with the terms hereof. After a show of hands has been taken upon any question, the Chair may require, or any member present and entitled to vote may demand a ballot thereon.

Whenever a vote by a show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon has been required or demanded, a declaration by the Secretary that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against any resolution. The result of the vote so taken and declared shall be the decision of the members on the question. A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot.
